Hello,

My name is Levi Papiernik. I was a customer of Zappos at the time the data breach occurred in January 2012 and I am a Settlement Class Member. I object to the settlement offer of a 10% discount code. I do not believe this settlement represents a penalty, and is actually more like a reward for Zappos. Offering a discount to settlement members entices them to visit the online store, incentivizes them to make purchases that they otherwise might not have made, and Zappos still obtains 90% of any purchases. This settlement is basically free advertising and revenue for Zappos.

I do not intend to attend the Final Approval Hearing.

Thank you,
